Ready to work on integrating more technology with your literacy instruction? 18 hours of PD!

summer tech academy

Kentucky Writing Project

Literacy and Technology Inquiry Project

Summer Tech Academies

The Kentucky Writing Project presents Summer Tech Academies for the 6th year in a row! Participants in the academy will receive 3 days of Professional Development (18 hours) to learn about websites, apps, and tools that will streamline your management as well as engage students in ways to use technology that enhance literacy learning. Sessions are geared for ALL GRADE LEVELS. Teacher leaders will demonstrate projects integrating technology into literacy instruction and engage participants in doing the same!

WHAT YOU GET

- Experienced Teacher Leaders to assist you in learning to use technology effectively
- Resources to take back to your school
- Research-based strategies for improving student learning and literacy through technology
- TIME and assistance as you develop your plan for a classroom technology project
- Opportunities for follow-up online and at our Fall Conference

"This was a great experience! The facilitators are extremely knowledgeable, and they presented in such a way that they didn't make me feel like a dummy!"

"This was the BEST PD I have ever been to! It was the most beneficial and the small group size made this a wonderful experience!"

"This academy was very helpful. As a teacher, we are constantly encouraged to bring technology into the classroom and allow the students to use technology. Thanks to the Academy I feel much more comfortable in accomplishing just that."

"I feel like I need this every summer because technology changes so rapidly."

"I attended last year and was concerned that it might have been a repeat; however, I was very pleased that it was all very new and fresh information."
